

Myanmar People Call on the US to sanction Myanmar's oil and gas revenues and stop the bankrolling of the genocidal military junta

311,792 Myanmar people have posted profile photos since October 2021 calling on:

- The US Governments to sanction MOGE immediately to save lives
- Chevron, a US company, to freeze all gas revenues payments to the genocidal military junta

Over 43,000 Myanmar people have posted profile photos since 29 April 2022 calling on the US Government to sanction MOGE. twb.nz/sanctionmoge (over 43,000 individuals supported the Blood Money Campaign's online protest)

The People of Myanmar, the Myanmar diaspora network, its allies and supporters of democracy movements in Myanmar call to U.S governments – to impose Sanctions against MOGE.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 1 Burmese youth -Southern Burma - risking their lives just to rally – driven by their strong belief that the U.S. could help. Please don't let them down. https://www.business-standard.com/article/international/myanmar-public-urges-gas-sanctions-to-stop-military-funding-amid-violence-121121500361_1.html

Figure 2 A village in central Burma called Inn Ma in the Chaung Oo Township which was burned to the ground by the Burmese military on April 24, 2022. People's lives are being destroyed with impunity just because they dare to think about freedom. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 3 Residents from the Day Pu No village hiding in the jungle, north of Hpa-pun in eastern Myanmar's Karen state after the area was hit by air strikes late on March 27

Figure 4 Inside an IDP Camp

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 5 How IDPs sleep

Figure 6 An IDP child comforting his sister

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 7 A jungle medical clinic

Figure 8 How IDPs eat

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 9 A bombed city in Chin land. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Figure 10 Aftermath of a bombing. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 11 A woman grieving the loss of her home. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Figure 12 Children fleeing an air strike. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 13 Children entering a bomb shelter. Cutting off aircraft fuel is important so that air strikes will stop.

Figure 14 Arrested young women still defiant. Please see AAPP | Assistance Association for Political Prisoners \(aappb.org\) for the latest statistics.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 15 A protester grieving his shot friend. Please see AAPP | Assistance Association for Political Prisoners \(aappb.org\) for the latest statistics.

Figure 16 Grieving family of a slain protester. Hundreds have been tortured and killed. This family was lucky to get the body back for proper burial. Please see AAPP | Assistance Association for Political Prisoners \(aappb.org\) for the latest statistics.

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 17 A shot protester being carried to safety. Please see AAPP | Assistance Association for Political Prisoners \(aappb.org\) for the latest statistics.

Figure 18 The military in full combat gear marching towards the protesters

Aftermath of the coup - Images of suffering and defiance in Myanmar

Figure 19 Burmese Ethnic Minorities Rally in California