Dear Mr. Blair,

I am writing again to ask for your response regarding the letters I wrote to you last year on 15 May, 3 September, 7 October, 4 November, 2 December and 20 December. Enclosed are my previous letters to you.

Given that we have written to you on several occasions since May 2013, and that you have still refused to disclose what you are doing in Burma, we can only assume that what you are doing in Burma is controversial and that you would be embarrassed if it were made public. This gives us even greater cause for concern about your activities.

Would we be wrong in assuming that you are giving strategic, political and public relations advice to the military-backed government of Burma and/or President Thein Sein?

Yours sincerely,

Zoya Phan
